Category 3: Additional proofs

- Voter Voucher: a registered voter (either pre-registered or registering on Election Day) in the precinct may vouch for up to 8 other voters in the same precinct (track using the Precinct list of Persons Vouching Form). A voter who is vouched for on Election Day cannot vouch for another voter in that same election.
- Staff person of a residential facility (Employee Voucher): if listed on the “Certified List of Employees of Residential Facilities”, or if other identification is provided (ID badge or letter from facility manager or equivalent officer that is signed and dated), these people can vouch for an unlimited number of individuals that reside in the facility where they work. Do not record this type of voucher on the Precinct List of Persons Vouching Form.
- College student photo ID with name on housing list: match the name provided on the college student photo ID with that on a housing list provided by a post-secondary institution.
- Valid registration in the same precinct: a voter can use their valid registration at a previous address within the precinct as proof for registering at their new address within that same precinct.
- Notice of Late Registration: issued by Hennepin County to voters who submitted a registration application before election day, but later than 21 days before an election.
